COOLIBAH WALK

TAMBO TO TAMBO

Duration: 1 days / 3 km

Follow the Coolibah Walk along both banks of the Barcoo River in Tambo and discover the waterholes, fishing spots and local stories that have shaped life in this outback town.

This leisurely three kilometre self-guided walk generally starts near the Tambo Dam recreation area and follows a well-signposted loop along the river. Shaded by established river trees, the walk offers a peaceful way to enjoy the natural surroundings, spot birdlife and experience the Barcoo River up close.

Along the way, discover waterholes that hold an important place in Tambo's history. The Garden Hole once provided water for the Chinese market gardeners who helped keep the community supplied with fresh fruit and vegetables. Sand Bank was, and remains, a favourite local fishing spot.

The Barcoo River, with its many swimming holes and fishing spots, has long been part of the Tambo way of life. Take your time, enjoy the riverside scenery and discover the stories held along its banks.

A lovely way to stretch your legs, experience Tambo's natural surroundings and see a little more of local life.
