

SETTLEMENT DRIVE

WALLUMBILLA TO WALLUMBILLA

Duration: 1 days / 70 km

With exceptionally fertile land, it's no surprise the area surrounding Wallumbilla was once described as the largest wheat and dairy district in the Maranoa.

Following the First World War, the land surrounding this drive was divided into soldier settlement blocks. This easy drive takes you through some of the region's earliest settlement villages, providing insight into the lifestyle of early settlers to the region.

From the Calico Cottage Heritage Complex, head west on the Warrego Highway for 250m.

Turn right onto Chadford Street and continue for 500 metres before turning left at Russell Street.

After one kilometre continue right onto Stakeyard Road and driver a further 6km. Stop off at the Stakeyard State School Heritage Site on the left.

Continue on Stakeyard Road for 3.8 kilometres and at the intersection turn left onto Raslie Road.

Travel along Raslie Road for 3.3 kilometres On the right is the Raslie State School Heritage Site and the Wild Dog (Dingo) Barrier Fence in a further 2 kilometres.

Continue on Raslie Road for 2.2 kilometres and turn left onto Pickanjinie North Road over the grid.

Continue on Pickanjinie North Road for 15.5 kilometres where you'll reach the Warrego Highway intersection. Pull over to see the painted rock Pickanjinie Monument.

Turn left onto the Warrego Highway (A2) and in 50 metres turn right onto Pickanjinie South Road.

Continue straight ahead over the railway line. In 100 metres stop off to see the Pickanjinie State School Heritage Site on the right.

Continue on the Pickanjinie South Road for one kilometre , where you will cross another grid. After 800 metres, you'll see the Cobb & Co Dalby – Roma Road Heritage site.

Where it is safe, turn around and travel back to the Warrego Highway.

Turn left for Roma or right for Wallumbilla.

This drive includes both sealed and unsealed sections and is recommended for high clearance vehicles only and should not be taken if the road is wet. Sections of this road may not be suitable for caravans.

Experiences: Major Drive Routes

Please note that the information contained in this document is current as of the date of creation. Subsequent changes in circumstances may render the information contained in this document no longer accurate. It is the reader's responsibility to verify the accuracy of the information before relying on it. This document should not be considered a substitute for professional advice.

Settlement Drive

Day: 1

Start: Wallumbilla End: Wallumbilla

With exceptionally fertile land, it's no surprise the area surrounding Wallumbilla was once described as the largest wheat and dairy district in the Maranoa. Following the First World War, the land surrounding this drive was divided into soldier settlement blocks. This easy drive takes you through some of the region's earliest settlement villages, providing insight into the lifestyle of early settlers to the region. From the Calico Cottage Heritage Complex, head west on the Warrego Highway for 250m. Turn right onto Chadford Street and continue for 500 metres before turning left at Russell Street. After one kilometre continue right onto Stakeyard Road and driver a further 6km. Stop off at the Stakeyard State School Heritage Site on the left. Continue on Stakeyard Road for 3.8 kilometres and at the intersection turn left onto Raslie Road. Travel along Raslie Road for 3.3 kilometres On the right is the Raslie State School Heritage Site and the Wild Dog (Dingo) Barrier Fence in a further 2 kilometres. Continue on Raslie Road for 2.2 kilometres and turn left onto Pickanji ie North Road over the grid. Continue on Pickanji ie North Road for 15.5 kilometres where you'll reach the Warrego Highway intersection. Pull over to see the painted rock Pickanji ie Monument. Turn left onto the Warrego Highway (A2) and in 50 metres turn right onto Pickanji ie South Road. Continue straight ahead over the railway line. In 100 metres stop off to see the Pickanji ie State School Heritage Site on the right. Continue on the Pickanji ie South Road for one kilometre , where you will cross another grid. After 800 metres, you'll see the Cobb & Co Dalby - Roma Road Heritage site. Where it is safe, turn around and travel back to the Warrego Highway. Turn left for Roma or right for Wallumbilla. This drive includes both sealed and unsealed sections and is recommended for high clearance vehicles only and should not be taken if the road is wet. Sections of this road may not be suitable for caravans.
